You should be able to open the e-mail containing the list of participants, but don't open the attachment. Just drag and drop the file attachment into your "Contacts" button on the left side of Outlook and then you should be able to view them in your contacts list. As a backup, I will forward you an e-mail I sent earlier with the e-mails visible and you can add them individually.....Wes

Can you provide an email/POC list of all the Task Force participants please?
